

Leader's checklist

The checklist below helps you decide whether the young people in your group have chosen a programme activity which meets Award criteria. For reference of the aims, principles, benefits and sectional categories, please see the Handbook for Award Leaders.

Aims of the sections

Volunteering To inspire young people to make a difference within their communities or to an individual's life and develop compassion by giving service to others.

Physical To inspire young people to achieve greater physical fitness and a healthy lifestyle through participation and improvement in physical activity the other for 12 months.

Skills To inspire young people to develop practical and social skills and personal interests.

Expedition To inspire young people to develop initiative and a spirit of adventure and discovery, by planning, training for and completing an adventurous journey as part of a team.

Residential To inspire participants through a concentrated involvement with people they don't know, who are usually from different backgrounds, and bring alternative views to the challenges they will face. The Residential section broadens their experiences by empowering them to make a difference in a team-based residential setting.

Age and Timescale requirements

Level Age Minimum time

Bronze 14+ 3–6 months

The participant needs to do one of their Volunteering, Physical or Skills sections for 6 months, the others for 3.
